

CEAL SYMPOSIUM

2026

Envisioning Aging through Community & Connection

THURSDAY, APRIL 9 | FRIDAY, APRIL 10
8:30 AM - 12 PM | 8:30 AM - 2 PM

The Center for Excellence in Aging & Longevity invites you to its third annual Spring Symposium: a dynamic, two-day event focused on envisioning aging through community and connection.

Join us for this free community-focused event. Day One kicks off with a screening of Familiar Touch sponsored by Front Porch. Day Two is packed with inspiring speakers, two interactive panels on community engagement, a community resource fair, and wraps up with a picnic to connect, reflect, and celebrate together.

Join us!

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Qwynn Galloway-Salazar

Space is limited!

Click here to RSVP

front porch

LOCATION:

GROSSMONT HEALTHCARE DISTRICT
9001 WAKARUSA ST, LA MESA, CA 91942

SDSU | Center for Excellence
in Aging & Longevity

If you're interested in sponsoring our Symposium, please reach out to Michelle Matter at mmatter@sdsu.edu

 CEAL@SDSU.EDU
 CEAL.SDSU.EDU